

OLLI NOTES

Volume 1, Issue 9
November 17, 2009

What's Happening In and Around Campus?

Practice for all carolers interested in going to the Homewood Residence December 9 from 2:30-4:30 should meet in the Bryan Garden Room of the Chapel on December 8th from 3:00 to 4:15. Contact Connie Kane-Maguire at 271-8544 for more info.

Greenville Symphony Orchestra presents Holiday at Peace December 18-20. Tickets only $15-$39 and for children under 12 half price. Also The Nutcracker Ballet performed Ukrainian National Academy of Dance, GSO and International Ballet Chorus Dec 12 and 13th Call the Peace Center Box office 467-3000 to reserve your tickets for either spectacular holiday event.

Carolina Bronze Handbell Ensemble is in Concert several times throughout December. For more info www.carolinabronze.org or call OLLI member Sharon Howell at 297-4851.

OLLI ART and CRAFT SHOW

The Special Events committee is still looking for all types of arts and crafts from paintings to poems to wood-carvings and quilts. Artists may loan, give or sell their artwork to OLLI members. Members come ready to purchase some of the greatest art in OLLI at the Art and Craft show. Or just come for some OLLI Jollies with the rest of your OLLI friends.

You are cordially invited to the 2nd Annual OLLI Arts and Craft Show
Dec. 13, 2009
3:30-5:30
OLLI Trailer

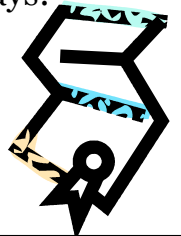

Cider, Coffee, Cookies and good holiday fun will be served!

If you would like information put into the OLLI notes, email lucy.woodhouse@furman.edu or drop a note with the information in her box in the copy room. THANKS!

OLLI@ Furman Travel Mugs and Gift certificates make great gifts for your OLLI friends! Fill the mugs with M&Ms, tea, or peanuts for a thoughtful and fun gift. Just $3.00 in the OLLI office. Your kids don't know what to give you for Christmas? We do, an OLLI gift certificate. Call 294-2979 to order for the holidays!

WANTED:

Performers and creative minds to star in and plan the OLLI FOLLIES variety show; this year's entertainment for the Annual OLLI Spring Luncheon. Dancers, actors, musicians, singers, magicians, balloon artists, the talented and the merely brave or willing, please join us for our first planning session, Thurs., Dec. 3 at noon in the OLLI Office. Call Judy Aten (294-6371) or Judith Ziemer (246-4259) for more info.

We have made a change since the brochure was printed!

086 Beginning Spanish II class (now on Wed. at 9:00, rather than Thursdays at 3:15.)

025 Living and Working in China (J. & D. Wilkins) class will meet in 00109

Meets 9:00 - 10:30 on Tuesdays class #027 Social and Environmental Justice: Jane Addams & Rachel Carson (Marie T. Burgess) NVJ 100.

Thursday Rouge Readers meets 12:30 – 1:15

CHRISTMAS TURKEYS and HAMS

St. Joseph's Society Men's Group will be cooking again at Christmas! Fried or smoked turkeys (8-12 lb.) $25; smoked hams (8-10 lb.) $30. Proceeds go to outreach projects of the men's group. Contact Al Hipp at 449-6362.

HOW DO I...

Register for Winter term. Brochures are available in the office and throughout the community at coffee shops, restaurants, medical offices, grocery stores, and health clubs that our members frequent. Also, we have posted the brochure online with registration forms. <http://www.furman.edu/olli/>

Be sure to check the update list of filled classes before sending your registration and to list alternates.

The OLLI Office will be closed November 25-27th for Thanksgiving and December 21-Jan. 1 for Christmas and New Years. We will be open the rest of the time from 8:30-5:00 getting ready for Winter Term!

Percent of OLLI Board members who have committed to the Building Campaign:

100%

(They believe. Do you?!)